Based Largely On Ike's Program

Nixon Wants 'Moderate' Rights Plank In Platform

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has passed the word to Republicans he wants a moderate civil rights plank, written into the party's platform.

It would be based largely on the civil rights program President Eisenhower submitted to Congress. Parts of this were included and parts omitted from the bill now awaiting Eisenhower's signature.

Although Nixon is prepared to take advantage of an expected Democratic split, he has told friends he doesn't expect civil rights to be a paramount issue in the fall campaign.

This will be particularly true, he is quoted as saying, if the Democrats nominate Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) as Nixon now thinks they are likely to do.

Although Kennedy voted for most of the more stringent amendments that were offered to the civil rights bill Congress passed this year, he sided in 1957 with Southern opponents on a couple of important tests.

He voted against Nixon's position then that the Senate could take up a House-passed bill without sending it to the Judiciary Committee, where it might have been buried. He supported the Southern-sponsored amendment to require jury trials for persons charged with contempt of court under provisions of the act.

In 1957 both Nixon and Kennedy backed a proposal under which the attorney general could have initiated civil rights injunction suits in other than voting rights cases.

Nixon has retreated from that position, largely because of advice from Atty. Gen. William P.

Rogers, who omitted it from this year's administration proposals. When Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) tried to write the injunction provision into this year's bill, Kennedy was away campaigning and was not recorded as voting.

Nixon obviously hopes as the Republican presidential nominee to collect the electoral votes of some Southern states. He thinks he might be able to do this if he holds a moderate position on civil rights.

The vice president does not agree that the Republicans need to take an extreme position on enforcement of civil rights in order to attract what could be the deciding votes of Negroes in the Northern big cities.

Nixon expects to make it clear in the campaign that if he is elected he would use the office of president to preach the moral right of equality.

Study Slated For Downtown Parking Plans

15-Point Proposal Made To Council For Controls And Meters

Council Monday night scheduled committee study of a 15-point proposal for innovations and changes in downtown traffic and parking controls that includes recommendations for major meter installations on parts of W. 5th St., St. Clair Ave., Jackson Square and Bradshaw Ave. and installation of "walk" lights to guard pedestrians at 2 busy intersections.

The report drafted by the street committee was read by John F. Kelly, chairman, then referred to the finance and franchise committees, as a question of money and changes in three bus stops also is involved.

Sections in which the committee recommended new meters:

Both sides of W. 5th St. between Jackson and Jefferson Sts. It proposed 10-hour meters and said a total of about 40 would be required.

Jackson Square, where about 14 meters would be required. In conjunction with the metering, the committee recommended changing parking from diagonal to parallel.

Both sides of Bradshaw Ave. from Walnut St. to Ravine St. About 29 meters would be required.

St. Clair Ave. in a stretch just north and south of Back Alley—the area near the former Nazarene Church—where parking now is prohibited. Nine meters would be required, the committee estimated.

The report also proposed extending the "red zone" parking meters onto Broadway between E. 5th and E. 6th Sts. and E. 5th St. from Washington St. to Broadway. The "red zone" meters require a 10-cent fee for an hour's parking—double the usual charge—and limit occupancy to 60 minutes.

The committee also called for elimination of third lanes which have been in use on a trial basis to expedite turns on Market St. at 5th St. and E. 5th St. at Market. It proposed use of an "advance green" signal in the traffic

Nixon Wants Rockefeller On Ticket As VP

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Herald Tribune reported today that "it can be said on high authority" that Vice President Richard M. Nixon definitely wants Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as his running mate.

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper said: "On the assumption that he himself will be nominated for president, Mr. Nixon is prepared to wait until the last minute at the Republican National Convention in July to give the New York governor a chance to make a final judgment on accepting the vice presidential nomination."

The story noted that Rockefeller has said unequivocally that he would not "entertain any thought of accepting nomination to the vice presidency."

Rockefeller took himself out of the running for the presidential nomination last December.

The Herald Tribune story said Nixon is convinced that a majority of the Republican party leaders want Rockefeller for the second place on the ticket.

New Cumberland's Veteran Coach Retires

The retirement of Charles Miller, veteran football and basketball coach at New Cumberland High School, was announced today by the Hancock County Board of Education.

Miller asked the board that he be relieved of his coaching duties and remain as a science teacher at New Cumberland. Supt. Robert H. Hall said the request has been granted.

John Kuzio, Miller's assistant for a number of years, has been elevated to head football and basketball coach, Supt. Hall said.

Cooking Stove Fumes Claim Family Of 3

ALIQUIPPAS — A family of three was found dead of asphyxiation Monday at the J. C. Trailer Court in nearby Hopewell Township.

Coroner John Colavincenzo said the family was killed Sunday by gas fumes which apparently escaped from a cooking stove in their house trailer.

Colavincenzo identified the victims as Arnold Mumaw, 38; his wife, Lola, 18, and their 9-month-old son, Terrence, whose bodies were found by a relative.

West Virginia Primary Foes Hitting Hard

Kennedy, Humphrey Camps Contend It's Not Like Wisconsin

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Wisconsin was never like this.

Camp followers of Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) argue over almost everything, but they agree that in the mountains of West Virginia they take their politics straight, and seriously.

New Group Eyed In St. Clair Area

Further discussion of organization of a St. Clair Township development organization was held at a meeting of the Calcutta Area Development Association Monday night at the Calcutta fire station attended by six members of the Glenmoor Improvement Association.

Both organizations have given approval of investigation of forming a new group for the whole township, and information on procedures for the organizing is to be obtained from Secretary of State Ted Brown.

Martin Christen, president of the Glenmoor unit, and five others attended.

Dean Wilhelm reported on a meeting he and William Black, president of the Calcutta group, had with county commissioners recently concerning a proposal for a county or regional planning commission.

Further information on such a planning group is to be obtained, and talks held with representatives of other communities and areas before Wilhelm and Black are to meet again with commissioners.

About 23 attended the meeting.

150 To Attend Dinner Honoring Chester Man

Over 150 are expected at a testimonial dinner for Floyd (Doc) Lyons, retired Chester police chief, Wednesday night at 6 at the American Legion home.

Lyons of Ferry Rd. will be taken to the post home in a Model T Ford driven by Ted Martin of Louisiana Ave., escorted by the Chester High School band.

Paul Johnston, general chairman, said Lyons is to be presented a gift at the Washington School tomorrow afternoon at 1 by the pupils.

City officials, representatives of other area communities and other guests will attend.

Key Club Awaits Visit Of International Head

The East Liverpool High School Key Club is completing plans for a visit of the International Key Club president, C. William Nelson, of Melbourne, Fla., for the club's installation May 12.

Committee chairmen for the event are Bruce Jones, special guests; Richard Feldman, program; Darrell Smith, meals and decorations; Bob Stewart, entertainment; Craig Burbick, school assembly; I. J. Vorndran, gifts; Gary Hicks, publicity, and Jeffrey Taylor, welcoming of guests. Jim Locke is general chairman.

'Shots' Given Pupils

LISBON — Eighteen polio shots were given Monday to first and pre-school children at Negley and Unity Schools by the Columbian County Health Department. Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, said nine vaccinations and one immunization were also given at the 2 clinics. The department is giving polio shots to first graders at a pre-school clinic at Summitville today.

District Staff To Meet

Boy Scouts Prepare For Camping

Four members of Chester Boy Scout Troop 26 erected a tent at a meeting Monday night as part of their preparation for the annual Cherokee District Camporee May 20-22 at Camp McKinley near Lisbon.

Throughout the district Scout and Explorer units are getting ready for the camp session at which patrols will compete for honors. More than 250 are expected.

William Rayburn, camping and activities chairman, and his committee are planning the event.

A meeting of the district commissioners' staff will be held Wednesday night at 7:30 with Ed Adkins, 3286 St. Clair Ave. Plans will be discussed for the camporee and a junior leader training course May 13-14 at Camp McKinley.

Atty. Ruth Cox Turner, Atty. James Jordan and Roy Cashdollar were named to investigate the number of qualified absentee voters and to obtain ballots for them.

Atty. Jordan, Atty. Turner, Harry Lewis, Charles Taylor and Thomas Ridge were appointed to meet out-of-town candidates visiting the city.

The program includes swimming, boating, fishing, various sports, movies and camp fire sessions.

Parents and friends may visit the camp on Sundays when the campers are checked in and on Wednesday evenings. Once campers are checked in, they may not leave without the permission of the director or acting director.

Each camper is given three meals a day. The list of personal articles needed by the youths can be obtained by checking at the Y. The camp is located 12 miles from the city limits about a mile off Route 30.

With the exception of two years, Pine Ridge has been used as a summer camp since 1923, when the site was purchased from the Youngstown YMCA.

Chester GOP Hits Aspirant

Some criticism of plans of Herman Gower, Chester baker, to seek write-in votes for mayor in the Chester general election June 7 were voiced at a meeting of city Republicans Monday night at the City Hall.

Gower, who lost the Republican primary mayoralty nomination to Ray Collins, is asking for support from write-ins.

It was announced that a survey of voter registration in the city is about 75 per cent complete. A final tabulation is expected at the next meeting May 16.

Driving Club Sets Vehicles Checkup

A free vehicle safety check sponsored by the East Liverpool High School Driving Club will be conducted from 1 to 3 Thursday afternoon in front of Central School.

Although mainly for students, the checkup also will be offered any other motorists. It includes examination of the brakes, front and rear lights, steering apparatus, tires, exhaust system, window glass, windshield wipers, rearview mirror and horn.

Operators will be given a copy of the checklist along with stickers, which read "I have joined the circle of safety" and indicating the car has been safety checked.

The vehicle check is conducted by the Salem Council, United Commercial Travelers, which will sponsor a safety parade May 21 in Salem prior to a week-long vehicle check there from May 23-28.

Why Anti-Communists Finally See Red

The disarmament parley at Geneva tied everybody in knots, except the debaters from the Kremlin. They blocked agreement, as usual.

The summit conference in mid-May will follow the same line of procedure. The non-Communist governments will find themselves tripped up and blocked at every turn by Communist experts in tripping and blocking.

This has been the Kremlin's policy in all international conferences. It has been the Soviet Union's trademark in the United Nations. It is the way Russian diplomats make the team.

The Berlin crisis, so-called, was precipitated by Nikita Khrushchev, the reigning all-star of dialectical materialism, which is the root, backbone and fiber of the Communist conspiracy. Every highly placed Communist must be an expert in the art of disputation whereby the Communist party advances its aims.

DISSERTATIONAL materialism, itself, is the theory that everything in the experience of living can be shown to spring from physical and material causes; that there are no spiritual or supernatural causes for anything in the world and that this can be proved by logic.

Though this is the central core of the clash between the Communist conspiracy and its opponents, it never has been clear to the opponents that it is useless to argue with Communists about it. Communist dialecticians go to school to learn how to demolish the arguments of their opponents. They polish the art of disputation as apprentices in the Communist apparatus of subversion.

They cannot rise to high places in the Communist organization unless they have shown unusual aptitude for crossing up and confusing their opponents in debate. The very fact that they have muddied the waters until Americans cannot comprehend what the Berlin crisis is about, or what blocks agree-

American Justice At Work

The last chapter of the Caryl Chessman case has been written.

An epilogue will follow, and it will contain some bitter notes of recrimination over his execution in California's gas chamber. All those who oppose capital punishment per se and those who opposed the execution of Caryl Chessman in particular will heap abuse upon the courts, the law and the officials of California.

The United States as a nation will come in for a share of this abuse, as evidenced by pro-Chessman stories which have been appearing in European newspapers. Americans stirred to anger by the convict's death will use the foreign reports to strengthen their attacks.

Regardless of the true motivation of those people, they will do well to bank their emotional fires and ponder for a while the earlier chapters in the Chessman story. They have been 12 years in the writing.

For a dozen years after his conviction and sentencing, Chessman himself and a succession of lawyers used every means at their disposal to try to find an avenue of escape. Those means at times seemed inexhaustible, ment on armament control is a tribute to their mastery of disputation.

It simply is not their purpose to reach agreement on anything.

THE HIGHEST ambition they hold as dialectical materialists is to prove conclusively to all who hold contrary beliefs that there can be no middle ground. They do not argue for the purpose of reaching agreement but for the purpose of proving that agreement is impossible unless their opponents surrender.

There is no place in their thinking for compromise. They do not believe in a golden mean. They never concede a point.

This is why anti-Communists finally see red, no matter how patient they try to be, no matter how tolerant, no matter how "peace-loving."

There can be no agreement with Communist dialecticians. It is contrary to what they are trying to do, which is to discredit and demolish all philosophies and beliefs that do not coincide with their own.

WHEN NON-COMMUNIST statesmen confess inability to make progress in arguments with Communists, they are not confessing failure. They are acknowledging that they have learned what the Communists already know—that no one who does not believe in dialectical materialism has an outside chance of reaching an agreement with a dialectical materialist.

If this were better known—if Americans could understand why their government always is frustrated in attempts to make agreements with the Soviet Union—there would be less despair when conferences with Communist dialecticians come to nothing.

That is what the Red dialecticians are supposed to do—to make certain that no one who is not a Communist can claim he won an argument with anyone who has been checked out as a card-carrying Communist.

so numerous were they. After all the customary ones had been tried, new ones were devised.

The courts and other agencies of officialdom were sympathetic with those efforts. Eight times the execution date was changed to give the convict a chance to be heard, no matter how flimsy the evidence seemed to be.

In contrast to the emotional outcries of the last several weeks, some of Chessman's appeals were given months or years of serious, concentrated study. Court after court—from almost the lowest to the highest in the land—went over the record in detail.

THIS WAS "due process of law" in full flower. This was the ultimate proof of the Constitution's concern with protecting the individual's right to life and liberty.

Caryl Chessman's execution is not an affirmation of its fairness. Although every court along the way reaffirmed his guilt, he was given 12 years and virtually unlimited legal opportunity to fight for his life.

Is there another country in the world that can cite a similar example of applied justice?

Almost An Open Invitation

The longer you think about the Russian trawler that showed up on the scene of missile-firing tests for the U.S. submarine George Washington, the more you wonder about the problem this made for the Navy.

If the Navy wanted to maintain secrecy about this new submarine's role in the Polaris missile system, it could have postponed the tests until the Russian trawler went away.

If the Navy wanted to conduct the tests in secrecy, it could have made its preparations in such secrecy that the Russian trawler would have had no reason to be on hand.

As it was, there was almost an open invitation to attend the tests. In view of the decision to hold them without benefit of secrecy in waters that could not be barred to any observer who wanted to be present, it is impossible to understand what the fuss is about.

In what sometimes seems to have been a more logical era of international muscle-flexing, military observers from other nations were invited to be present for all demonstrations of potent weapons and frequently for war games. The idea was to impress them with the folly of starting trouble. It didn't always work that way, but who knows how many wars have been postponed after a would-be warmaker ran a speculative thumb over the cutting edge of a potential enemy's sword?

Secrecy is the big security passion in this sometimes illogical era, but some of us helping to put up the money for Polaris and other systems of wholesale destruction would be happier if Russian observers attended every demonstration of U.S. power. If the Polaris system is what it is cracked up to be, the Navy should invite Premier Khrushchev himself, to see how a missile from a nuclear-powered submarine that can cruise the oceans of the world for months at a time without even surfacing for fresh air.

Ike knows the value of relief pitching in critical moments, and sees need of a strong bullpen in the Paris game.

Nixon has been top man in the bullpen for eight years. He is a righthander with a change of pace and both a fast ball and curve. Following his appearances in South America and Moscow he is reported to have developed a knuckle and fadeaway.

Khrushchev's strategy will be to keep Ike on the mound. He will also want to exhaust Dick's patience by keeping him in the bullpen, even when Ike shakes his head weary and seems to be indicating his delivery isn't working. Nixon may be the man for the job. But why not take along Ryne Duren and Whitey Ford just in case?

Probably the largest sculpture ever attempted is the Mount Rushmore National Memorial, in South Dakota. It was carved from solid granite by craftsmen using compressed-air drills, and features the heads of four U. S. Presidents—Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, and Theodore Roosevelt.

It costs as much as $700 to keep some of the top-name ballerinas in toe-dancing shoes for one year—stars such as Nina Novak and Gertrude Tyven. These dancers uses as many as a hundred pairs of shoes a year.

Political Party Raid Epidemic

By Victor Riesel

LOS ANGELES

Jimmy Hoffa, who sees red so frequently these days, apparently is politically color blind. The man whose conservatism was as rockribbed as his fist, has been conferring often and quietly with men long accused before federal and congressional agencies of pro-Communist and pro-Soviet activities.

It is with these men that James Hoffa plans to build a network of transportation unions around the sprawling Teamsters federation.

On that summer day in '58, they sweated him. They told Crum they were dissatisfied with the way Schmidt was acting as monitor. They proposed that Crum go to Schmidt and offer him a settlement. Then Schmidt was to resign.

According to Crum's testimony before the McClelland committee, Goldblatt and Bridges tracked him down in a San Francisco hotel.

The lawyer then said he thought that what Hoffa wanted was a stooge, not a monitor.

The next night Goldblatt called. Always the same pressure.

Always their objective was the same, too. They wanted to clear the way for a coalition with Hoffa in a federation of transport workers on the land, on the sea and in the air.

Hoffa died. But the objective didn't. They're still planning, the boys and Hoffa.

Crumb was then to take his place. Crum refused.

Goldblatt and Bridges continued to pressure him over the months. Finally on Nov. 5, Bridges telephoned Crum again. Harry said he was sorry that Crum was balking. The lawyer then said he thought that what Hoffa wanted was a stooge, not a monitor.

Johnson's Advantage

By Raymond Moley

So far, as I know, one very important point has been overlooked in all current speculation about the Democratic scramble for the presidential nomination.

That point, often decisive in a bitter convention battle, is floor management and strategy. In that department Sen. Lyndon Johnson, generally rated as a candidate less likely to succeed, has a great advantage. For none of the Democratic contenders has had the experience and the proved success of Johnson in parliamentary battles.

It is with these left-wing allies that he worked to outmaneuver the Federal Court. Monitors assigned to police his union.

It was these men, ousted from the old CIO for following the Soviet line with magnetic devotion, who actually pressured the monitors in a series of secret operations.

TWO OF THESE MEN are Harry Bridges, president, and Louis Goldblatt, secretary-treasurer of the powerful International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union which has paralyzed the economy of our Hawaiian outpost with hard-hitting strikes.

It is with these left-wing allies that he worked to outmaneuver the Federal Court. Monitors assigned to police his union.

It was these men, ousted from the old CIO for following the Soviet line with magnetic devotion, who actually pressured the monitors in a series of secret operations.

It was with these men that James Hoffa has continued his drive to mesh the Teamsters and the Bridges-Goldblatt Longshoremen, though he has read of Goldblatt's refusal to deny that he was a member of the Communist party.

This happened under oath before the McClelland committee on July 10, 1959. It was then that Sen. McClelland asked Goldblatt:

"Now I will ask you if you have in the past, any time in the past since you have been a member of a union, have you been a member of the Communist party?"

Brother Goldblatt, Hoffa's latest ally, refused a direct answer. He took the Fifth.

At another time he was asked if he had written and published a pamphlet which said in part: "We in the U.S. under the leadership of the Communist party and the Young Communist League shall overthrow capitalism and build a workers and farmers government—a Soviet America." To each his own. He again took the Fifth.

It was this same Goldblatt and Bridges who were angered when one of the monitors, Godfrey Schmidt, wrote a document protesting the Teamsters alliance with the left. This was in mid-summer of '58.

The Longshoremen chiefs wanted to get Schmidt out of the way because he "was frustrating the alliance between the Teamsters and the ILWU."

IN AT LEAST FIVE of the 11 contested nominations the skill and strategy of management won.

Let us take a few examples. The myth exists that in 1920 a few deep-throated professionals met in a "smoke-filled room" and because the election seemed to be "in the bag" they picked the most pliable of all possibilities, Warren G. Harding.

That sort of thing makes a good story for the movies and novels. But a certain inevitability and availability pervade even such iniquitous conclaves.

Two of the leading candidates, Sen. Hiram Johnson and Gen. Leonard Wood, were the claims heirs of the great Theodore Roosevelt.

Not only did they have strength enough to create a mutual deadlock but the wounds of 1912 were not yet healed.

Someone had to be found who would alienate neither the old Pro-

IN ANOTHER BALLOT there was almost a certainty that two or three Roosevelt delegations would bolt. Many people claim credit for the master stroke: Give the vice presidential nomination to Speaker Garner and in return take the Texas and California delegations. The rest is history.

In 1860 on the first ballot Lincoln was far behind Gov. Seward of New York. Then began some of the fastest horse-trading in history. Cabinet posts were pledged for delegates. Cameron released the Pennsylvania delegation. Then Chase of Ohio added what was decided to nominate him.

Harding became secretary of war and Chase secretary of the treasury. Seward was made secretary of state, although his delegation never went for Lincoln until the nomination was a certainty.

In 1952 Taft would probably have been nominated except for the bad judgment of his managers. That is well known.

In 1960 if, as is probable, Kennedy and Johnson lead with something less than a majority, the incredible capacity of Johnson to trade, cajole or threaten will come into full play, just as it has been revealed in many Senate vote since he has been majority leader.

Perhaps he will fail to win the prize himself but it would be a safe wager that no one will succeed whom he opposes and it might well be that his choice will prevail.

Who that might be is not known. But his opponents will feel the impact of a master's hand in the balloting.

The famed pirate, Captain Kidd, was at one time in the service of the British government. He was given command of the ship "Adventure," with a commission by the King to arrest all those guilty of piracy on the high seas. Once he put out to sea, though, the lure of easy booty turned Captain Kidd's head and the pirate-hunter turned pirate.

Fulbright On Nasser

By David Lawrence

Statement Stirs New Controversy

Does Chairman Fulbright, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, speak for the Democratic party when he takes the side of Dictator Nasser against the Israeli government? Sen. Kennedy, Humphrey, Symington and Johnson disagree with the Arkansas senator in his latest pronouncement that glosses over Nasser's refusal to open the Suez Canal to all shipping.

Within the last 24 hours, Nasser has issued a bitter attack on President Eisenhower, blaming him for the boycott by American seamen in New York City.

He holds President Eisenhower responsible for what the unions are doing, though he himself disclaims any responsibility for what the Arab unions are doing.

SHOULD AMERICAN taxpayers' funds be used to support any regime which discriminates against American seamen in this manner?

Although the Senate and House recorded an emphatic "no," Sen. Fulbright now accuses his fellow members of Congress of playing politics and of being influenced by a "pressure" group.

The veterans committee of the Jewish War Veterans called this remark, "an insult to the loyalty and patriotism of the members of this group who have served this country loyally in war and peace." It added:

"It is apparently the view of Sen. Fulbright that American organizations must abdicate their right to speak out on issues affecting the foreign policies of the United States."

Sen. Keating, (R-N.Y.), says that the action taken by Congress means that the United States is asking Nasser to stop using the Suez Canal as a political pawn." Sen. Fulbright, however, contends that the action by the House and Senate has "seriously compromised the conduct of foreign policy by the President.

But it is the Nasser government which is trying to sabotage American foreign policy. Within the last few days the vice foreign minister of the United Arab Republic (Egypt), on his visit to Chile, told a news conference there that the Cairo government, "will resolutely help Cuba defend itself against aggression if it is within our possibilities."

$48,724 Pledged To Date

Osteopathic Fund Drive Outlined

The need for expansion was explained and a fund-raising campaign outlined when some 165 community leaders attended a dinner meeting Monday night as guests of the East Liverpool Osteopathic Hospital.

A goal of approximately $200,000 was included in remarks by Dr. John W. Hayes, president of the Board of Trustees and hospital administrator, who discussed "The Past, Present and the Future." Other speakers included Dr. George W. Northup of Morristown, N. J., past president of the American Osteopathic Association, and James Locke, a member of the Board of Trustees.

DR. HAYES said the proposed expansion at the non-profit hospital on W. 6th St. calls for 22 additional beds, private and semi-private rooms, an enlarged nursery and obstetrical rooms, doubling of operating facilities, more X-ray space and equipment, an out-patient department, enlarged laboratory working space, expanded office space, more storage space, additional dressing rooms and a doctors' room.

He said "that because this is a community hospital and not a private hospital, the community is being asked to support the expansion program".

During May, some 200 volunteer workers will call on 2,000 individuals and business firms for financial support, Dr. Hayes said, with donors being asked to pledge over a three-year period.

The campaign is being directed by Burritt, Inc., a national fund-raising organization. Dr. Hayes said "their charges are based on a flat fee and not a percentage of funds raised".

The Advance Gift Division of 45 workers has been completed and will be responsible for contacting 300 business firms, organizations, industries and individuals. This division will hold a "kick-off" meeting tonight in the chapel of the First Methodist Church.

Division chairmen are Frank A. Dawson, James H. Riggs and John B. McDonald.

The General Gifts Division will complete its organization of approximately 200 workers by May 9, at which time its "kickoff" meeting will be held.

Division chairmen are Alvin Babb, Dean M. Wilhelm and Charles Taylor.

DR. HAYES reported $48,724.72 pledged to date — $41,000 by the hospital's staff of six doctors and $7,724.72 by the Board of Directors and hospital employees.

The development and expansion of the hospital during the past 12 years was cited in these figures by Dr. Hayes: 5,812 patients admitted; 1,571 major surgeries; 1,719 minor surgeries; 1,084 babies born; 56,101 hospital days recorded; 6,146 X-rays taken; 27,257 laboratory tests made; 499 charity patients admitted.

The total payroll in 1959 amounted to $78,948, he said.

The Osteopathic Hospital here is the only one in Columbiana County. It is a member of the American Osteopathic Hospital Association, is accredited as a "registered" institution by the American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Hospitals, is honored by the Ohio State Board of Health and is insured by the Ohio State Board of Health and receives its annual license from the Ohio State Department of Health.

Locke, using the theme of "A Wise Investment", made these key points:

1. — The hospital is a non-profit institution and is not tax supported, with 499 charity patients served in the last 12 years.

2. — Doctors of osteopathy pay the hospital a service charge for each one of their patients who use the hospital. From 1949 to 1959, this amounted to $38,900.

3. — Room rates charged at the hospital are the lowest of any member hospital of the Eastern Ohio Hospital Council, which includes all osteopathic and medi-

Housewives Win Fight To End Dust From Road

Shippingport housewives were hopeful today their battle against dust will end this week.

At a special session Friday night, Council ordered a supply of oil for River Rd., which the women barricaded last week to block traffic stirring up dust.

William Green, secretary, said the oil is expected to be delivered and applied this week, if the weather is suitable.

Only routine business was transacted at Monday night's brief Council meeting.

Appointed As Dean

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — Ralph W. McDonald, president of Bowling Green State University, today announced appointment of William F. Schmelitz as dean-elect of the university's College of Business Administration.

Schmelitz, chairman of the department of accounting since 1951, will succeed retiring Dr. Benjamin L. Pierce on Nov. 15, 1960.

Mrs. Charles Miller, a teacher, gave a reading of "The Day I Quit Teaching School." The attendance banner was won by the third grade of Mrs. William Flurkey.

Teachers served as hosts and hostesses. The executive committee plans to meet in August before the next school term.

FOR OLD TIRED LINOLEUM

It's so easy to put new wear and life in old linoleum. A bright shining coat of Glaxo is the answer.

A Glaxo floor is glass like in appearance, yet is non slip. It practically cares for itself since it seals out dirt and a swish of the mop is all that's necessary.

You don't wax a Glaxo floor. Make the old linoleum do with Glaxo. Milligan's.

Miss Jane A. Burson Weds In St. Aloysius Ceremonies

Miss Jane Ann Burson wore an amethyst and pearl ring over 100 years old and belonging to her paternal great-grandmother, the late Mrs. William Offord, when she became the bride of Pfc. Edward Burns April 23 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Burson, 1536 Pennsylvania Ave., and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Burns, 2205 Richardson Ave.

Fr. Anthony Esposito, assistant pastor, officiated for the 10:30 o'clock double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with orchids, ferns, palms and 7-branch candelabra.

Mrs. James O'Reilly, church organist, presented a half-hour of traditional music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace over blue taffeta. The fitted bodice was fashioned with short sleeves and a circular neckline and the bouffant skirt was worn over crinoline.

Her blue shoulder-length veil was attached to a Juliet cap. She served all the familiar customs and carried a Colonial bouquet of white orchids and carnations.

Miss Sylvia Lucerne of New Kensington, a nursing classmate of the bride, was the maid of honor.

She wore a pastel pink summer suit with matching accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

Robert McNicol was best man. Ushers were William Burson, cousin of the bride, and Michael Burns, brother of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride chose a two-piece powder blue dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue silk print dress. Matching accessories and pink rosebud corsage completed their attire.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party was held immediately following the ceremony at Meade's Restaurant in Wellsville.

About 75 attended the reception.

Council Told Of 'Spite'

Complaint Made On Car Using Lot

Two Pleasant Heights residents asked Council Monday night what can be done to halt unnecessary "spite" traffic over an unused section of an alley that the neighborhood has maintained for 15 years as a community picnic spot and playground.

William Conkle of Dakota Ave. and Thomas Zook of Montana Ave. told Council the grassy "park" area was respected for years by motorists, but within the last 12 months a relative of a family that moved into the neighborhood in a trailer has insisted he has a right to drive across the site because it is dedicated for street purposes.

CONKLE AND ZOOK said the ground in question is a 200-foot stretch of Carroll Ln., which lies between Dakota and Montana Ave. The neighborhood "park" stretches from Kings Ln. to Sanford Ave., they said.

Conkle, the principal spokesman, did not name the man he accuses of driving across the site unnecessarily, but he said twice the action was "for spite" because the trailer resident has other access to his property.

About 14 or 15 years ago, residents of the neighborhood cleared the unused section of the alley, spread top soil and planted grass seed so that it could be maintained for family and neighborhood picnics and a volleyball court and playground for youngsters, Conkle related.

"We don't object to use of the ground by trucks making coal deliveries or other necessary trips," Conkle said. "But the children don't know to stay off the site because it's grassed over like a lawn and they've always played there."

Team honors went to Miss Silverman and Evelyn Fisher of Westgate with Thomas and Mike Schuck of St. Aloysius winning second. The group awards went to Misses Brokaw, Cox, Eason and Ludwig from Lincoln. A total of $772.25 was collected, an increase of $264 over the 1959 Tag Day.

Parade To Precede Event

Jaycees Complete Plans For 'Motorama' At Calcutta

Plans for the Junior Chamber of Commerce Motorama Saturday and Sunday at Calcutta were completed at a meeting of the Board of Trustees Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Arnold Headlund and Darrell Serafin, co-chairmen, outlined the two-day program. They said displays at the Skyview Theater will include all types of new and foreign cars, auto accessories, boats and motors, lawn mowers, motorized carts and possibly some tractors.

A parade will be held in the downtown business district Saturday at 11 a.m. to kick off the show.

Antique autos will be on display both Saturday and Sunday for viewing by the public. Auto enthusiasts have been invited to Sunday's session to enter their cars in judging. Winners will be awarded trophies.

In other business, Robert Hoover reported the annual Junior Golf tournament will be held June 27 at the Country Club for high school youths. A practice session will be held June 20.

The board directed the junior bowling committee to purchase trophies for various league winners.

Robert Lewis reported on the stocks and bonds forum being held at Westgate School each Tuesday evening. Arrangements for the Teenage Safe Driving Road-E-O May 15 were outlined by William Webber.

Jack Hale reported all arrangements have been completed for the annual post-prom party May 13 at Memorial Auditorium. The students will be taken to a movie, and then return to the gym for refreshments, professional entertainment and dancing.

Hoover said his committee will meet soon to review plans for the annual inaugural ball June 3 at the Country Club. Jaycee and Jayceeette officers will be installed and awards presented.

Ralph Compa, a former member and past president, was accepted as an associate member.

Sidney Porter presented the final report on the Easter sunrise service held at Patterson Field in conjunction with the East Liverpool Ministerial Association.

The board voted that its delegates to the state convention May 20-22 at Cincinnati support Robert Betts of Barnesville for state president. Betts now is a vice president and at one time served as national director. Ed Adkins, president, and James Allison, vice president, plan to attend.

The board adopted an addition to the by-laws to set up a basic set of rules for governing elections. The five new sections must be ratified by the general membership before they are made of official.

It was announced a golf tournament for Jaycee members will be held May 21 at the Highland Golf Club.

Officers will be elected at the next general membership meeting May 16 at the Travelers Hotel. The next board meeting will be June 6.

Palestine May Acquire Sweeper

EAST PALESTINE — The recommendation for the purchase of a street sweeper machine was presented by Mayor Robert Harding at a meeting of Council Monday night.

The mayor said a machine is needed to replace the present manual system of sweeping streets which he termed "inadequate." Cost of the machine would amount to some $9,000, and could be obtained from the parking meter fund which now totals $13,000, he said.

A new machine is on display today at the City Hall, and Council will meet tonight at 8:30 to view it. Four men work on the street department at present, and no reduction in the staff is contemplated this summer, Mayor Harding said.

In other action, Council called for bids for depositories for the city's active and inactive funds, to be opened May 16. The First National Bank and the Union Commercial & Savings Bank are the present depositories.

The mayor reported $541 collected in fines, fees and parking penalties for April.

Ignoring others of 60 witnesses pressed against the chamber's heavy glass windows, Chessman talked to Eleanor Garner Black, trying to have her understand a final message she could not hear through the sound-proof glass.

Mrs. Black, Los Angeles Examiner reporter, read his lips as saying "Tell Rosalie goodby." Whatever else he said could not be grasped.

The farewell was for Rosalie Asher, Sacramento attorney. In Chessman's last night in the waiting room outside the gas chamber he named Miss Asher as the executrix of his estate in a handwritten codicil to his will. He directed that future royalties from his books be used to campaign for abolition of capital punishment.

Deaths And Funerals

Collision Kills Native Of City

Richard Charles Brown of Pittsburg, Calif., a former resident of East Liverpool, was killed instantly Monday morning in an auto collision there. He was 33.

He was born April 17, 1927, in East Liverpool, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown, who reside on Michigan Ave. He attended East Liverpool High School and served three years with the Navy during World War II in the Pacific area.

In addition to his parents, he leaves his widow, Mrs. Patricia Laughey Brown, two daughters, Margaret Brown and Roberta Brown, and a son, Michael Brown, all at home, and a sister, Mrs. Donald Glass of Chester.

Services and burial will be held Thursday at Pittsburg.

Jonathan Moore

Jonathan F. Moore, 63, of 350 Odgen St. was pronounced dead on arrival at City Hospital Monday afternoon at 2:30. He had been ill for five weeks.

Born in East Liverpool, he was a son of the late James and Lida Harlon Moore. He was employed as a machinist at the Crucible Steel Works at Midland.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Sarah Arb Moore at home; four sons, John Moore at home, William Moore of Long Beach, Calif., Lee Moore of St. Clair Shores, Mich., and Glen Moore of Lincoln Park, Mich.; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Eddy of East Liverpool; a sister, Mrs. Laura Laughey of Pittsburg, Calif. and 10 grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday afternoon at 1 at the Dawson Funeral Home by John Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ. Burial will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call Thursday at the funeral home.

Traffic

James Jordan, 462 Wood Lane, Midland, a witness, told police that Farnsworth, headed east, rounded the turn from Elizabeth onto Harvey and saw a line of cars ahead, halted for the traffic signal on Harvey at Myrtle Ave. The auto went through the Lincoln's yard, traveling about 100 feet before it hit the home, officers said.

Farnsworth estimated his speed at 15 miles an hour. He told police his brakes failed when he attempted to slow the car as he rounded the bend. Rather than hit the halted cars ahead, he turned the car off the street, he said.

There was comparatively minor damage to the front bumper and splash pan of Farnsworth's car, police said. Mrs. Lincoln was in bed at the time of the crash. She said her greatest personal loss was a philodendron bush in her front yard, which she has been tending carefully for 10 years or more. Leveled by the car, the bush probably will die, officers said.

Thomas Lanam, 45, of 314 Market St. was charged with driving after his operator's permit had been revoked as an aftermath of a minor mishap on Chestnut St. 100 feet south of W. 9th St. Monday at 3:28 p. m.

Lanam's 1947 four-door sedan struck a parked 1960 model owned by Charles R. Stroup, 612 Grant St., Newell, officers said. Lanam is due for a Municipal Court hearing Wednesday.

Lanam told police he was backing into a garage when he hit the rear bumper of Stroup's car.

A parked auto was damaged slightly in another mishap on E. 3rd St. near Washington St. at 2:32 this morning, officers said.

A 1958 sedan owned by Alice E. Lane, 520 Market St., was hit by a drifting truck owned by the A. & P. Tea Co. at Pittsburgh, officers said. Edward J. Decker, 30, of Pittsburgh, the driver, told police the truck drifted and hit the car after he parked it on E. 3rd St., headed west.

ing at the Washington Township precinct.

Palestine Voting

Described As 'Light'

EAST PALESTINE — Poll workers termed forenoon voting here "light" with from 11 to 19 casting ballots at the 8 precincts in the first 3 hours of the primary.

The total vote was estimated to be 1,000 unless there is heavy afternoon balloting, one observer declared.

Fog Cited For Light
Vote On Bond Issue

IRONDALE — A heavy fog that covered the area and slowed traffic considerably resulted in a light turnout at the polls this morning as Stanton Local School District residents balloted on a $1,597,000 bond issue for a new high school.

Driving conditions were hazardous until the curtain of fog lifted shortly after 10 a. m. Polling places in the district's 8 precincts opened this morning at 7:30 and will close at 7:30 tonight.

The bond issue is for securing a site and the construction and equipping of a new high school building along State Route 213 in the southwest corner of Hammondsburg.

At 11 this morning, only 53 had voted in Hammondsburg and 76 in Irondale. Other polling sites are in Port Homer, Stratton, Empire, Ross Township and Grant District.

Only a majority vote is required.

Precinct At Lisbon

Reports 59 Votes Cast

LISBON — Although one precinct reported 59 votes cast by 11 a. m., the general balloting picture here was termed light.

Householders and shopkeepers in Bruges, Belgium, are easily persuaded by the city to use colors the government approves. And if they improve their properties along traditional lines, the government will pay 30 per cent of the bill.

Officers' installation will be held when the Columbiana County PTA Council meets Thursday at 6:30 p. m. for a coverdish supper at the McKinley School in Wellsville.

Mrs. Elmer James of Alliance, East District director, will be the installing officer. The meeting was changed from West Point School.

Only a majority vote is required.

County PTA To Install

At Wellsville Thursday

Officers' installation will be held when the Columbiana County PTA Council meets Thursday at 6:30 p. m. for a coverdish supper at the McKinley School in Wellsville.

The plat is part of the southeast corner of Section 8 in Fairfield Township and includes four 100-x-200-foot lots on the lower Elkhorn Rd.

The commissioners also approved

installation of a cigarette vending machine in the Courthouse by Lester Kenmuir.

Post Reports
126 Members

A membership of 126 in the Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 was reported by Charles Huffman, first vice commander, at a meeting Monday night at the post home.

Harold Waide won a trip to the West Virginia Legion convention July 23-25 at Huntington for having obtained the most members in the current drive. Gilbert Michaels received a 2-year paidup membership as a prize in the competition.

A contribution of $15 was authorized for the Chester High School post-pron party.

Jack Mumaw was named manager of the junior baseball team of the post. The senior baseball team was granted permission to sponsor a public fish fry May 20 at the home.

Named delegates to the 1st District convention May 22 at Wheeling were Graven Lyle, William Wright, Huffman, Charles Lauglin and John Grimes.

First nomination of officers was held, with second nomination slated for the next meeting May 16. Lunch was served by Waide and committee.

Queen's Crowning Set At South Side

Miss Donna Jean Rogers will be crowned queen of a May Day celebration to be held Wednesday night at 8 at the South Side High School near Hookstown.

She will be crowned by Barbara Anderson, last year's queen. Miss Marianne Soban will be maid of honor and the court will consist of girls of the Senior Class.

Miss Rogers, a senior, was elected by members of the Sophomore, Junior and Senior Classes.

The program will include a fashion show by members of the home economics department and exhibits of shop, art and science departments.

Refreshments will be served by members of the home economics department and the Parent-Teacher Association.

Chairmen of the event include Mrs. Marie Elliott and Mrs. Jane Caputo, coronation and processionals; Mrs. Janet Davis and Mrs. Mary Goodwin, music; Miss Susan Ashman, home ec; Miss Sandra Johns, aid to queen and acceptance speech, and H. Wilson Denny and Clifford Campbell, stage setting and decorations.

West Firemen Quell

Blaze Near Cemetery

Some 2,800 gallons of water were used by members of the Liverpool Township West volunteer fire department to extinguish a brush fire near Spring Grove Cemetery Saturday afternoon at 4.

Eighteen men and two trucks responded to the call and remained on the scene almost two hours. Homer Cronin, forest warden, said that the forestry department can impose a fine of $100 to $500 to anyone who deliberately sets fire to brush piles or woodlands.

Fairfield Township Plat

Is Accepted By County

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners approved a plat submitted by Robert C. and Wayne R. Sitter at their meeting Monday, according to Frank Wilson, chairman.

The plat is part of the southeast corner of Section 8 in Fairfield Township and includes four 100-x-200-foot lots on the lower Elkhorn Rd.

The commissioners also approved

installation of a cigarette vending machine in the Courthouse by Lester Kenmuir.

light at Jefferson and W. 6th Sts. to allow northbound Jefferson St. traffic a few extra moments to turn left onto W. 6th St.

Walk lights" were proposed to give pedestrians time to cross the busy 5th St. intersections at Market St. and Broadway.

The report calls for installation of meters in three single locations on St. Clair Ave. and Broadway. They are: St. Clair, alongside Central Fire Station; St. Clair Ave., alongside Rake's Cigar Store, and Broadway, in front of Peters Savings & Loan Co. Building.

The report proposes elimination of a bus stop on the south side of E. 6th St. at Washington St. and changes in the stops at W. 6th and Jackson and W. 6th and Dresden.

The stop at W. 6th and Jackson would be moved from the west side of Jackson to the east side and the stop now located on W. 6th in front of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. office would be moved across the Diamond to a spot alongside Rand's Drugstore, the committee said. In both changes, buses would be able to pull into the curb rather than halting in the traffic lanes as they do sometimes at present, the report said.

President Charles N. Edwards said segments of the report which would require expenditure of funds — including purchase of the "walk lights" and the new meters — will be referred to the finance committee. The questions on the bus stops will be studied by the franchise committee, he said. The committee said the new "walk lights" would cost about $1,200 each.

The schedule follows:

Monday, May 16, Columbiana

warehouse, for county welfare, soldiers relief and East Palestine relief cases.

Tuesday, May 17, Salem City

Hall, for county welfare, soldiers relief, Salem relief.

Wednesday, May 18, Wellsville

City Hall, county welfare, soldiers relief, Wellsville relief.

Thursday, May 19, East Liverpool Central Fire Station, county welfare, soldiers relief, East Liverpool relief.

Distribution hours at all will be 9 a. m. to noon, Bycroft said.

There will be no distribution for the aid for the aged this month.

Motorist Fined

LISBON — William L. Freeman,

25, of Minerva was fined $10 and costs Monday by County Judge James L. MacDonald for driving left of center and the $5 fine of Ralph A. Rosea, 36, of Salem R. D. 1 was suspended. He was cited for parking on a highway. Glenn W. Weber, 20, of Salem R. D. 4 forfeited $15 for speeding. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Last week a 12-year-old boy was drowned in a neighborhood creek. This boy was disliked by many people because he was cruel.

I almost hated him because he used to make fun of my bad limp. I've been crippled since childhood and have a difficult time walking.

No one knows this but I was near the creek when the boy fell in. I stood there and watched him drown. I think now, maybe I could have saved him if I had made the effort. As I recall it, I seemed to be rooted to the ground in horror and was unable to move.

The more I think of it, the guiltier I feel. Did I let the boy drown because of the humiliation he caused me? Please give me your views, Ann, and tell me what to do. — GUILTY BYSTANDER.

Dear Bystander: I'm avoiding the word "guilty" because I doubt that you're guilty of anything.

People react differently to peril. During the war men who were considered timid often displayed unbelievable courage and heroism under fire. When questioned later they didn't know why they did what they did. They reacted in a mechanical way.

Some people become immobilized in the face of a calamity. They can't utter a sound or make a move. It may well be that you were paralyzed with fright and could do nothing.

Now that it's all over you raise punishing questions which may be related to your feelings of inadequacy because of your handicap.

See a clergyman and/or a psychiatrist and talk this out and be rid of it.

Honeymoon Ended

Dear Ann: What shall I do about a husband who spends five minutes every morning inspecting his shirt for a wrinkle? He even looks under the collar. When he finds a wrinkle he throws the shirt in my face and says, "Do it over."

I never ironed a shirt in my life until we were married but I made up my mind to learn. I spent three afternoons at my mother's house and watched her do Dad's shirts. It takes me 25 minutes to do a single shirt but when I'm finished it's almost perfect. I really try hard because I know how fussy Albert is.

This foolishness started about six months ago. We've been married less than two years. Please tell me what to do. — HONEYMOON OVER.

Dear Over: Send Albert's shirts to the laundry. Perhaps when he can no longer pick on you for a wrinkle in his shirt he'll tell you what's really eating him.

Glad It Wasn't A Boy

Dear Ann: I just read about the "lousy neighbor" who ran over the boy's bike in her driveway. This happened to me a few months ago and I am no "lousy neighbor."

I was in a hurry and had just put a big box in the back of my station wagon. I saw no bike. Any driver knows it's almost impossible to see something lying flat, practically under the rear tires.

I broke the bike to pieces but I replaced it — even though the boy had no business putting it there.

The moral of the story is this: It might have been a small child instead of a bicycle. I'll never back out again without checking. — S.C.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

High School Band, Orchestra Slate Spring Concert Friday

Three soloists and two student conductors will be featured at the annual spring concert of the East Liverpool High School band and orchestra Friday night at 8 at Memorial Auditorium.

Beth Ann Breeze, violinist, will play "Liebesleid" (Kreisler) with the orchestra.

Appearing with the Concert Band will be Ronald McAtee, clarinetist, playing "Rondo" (Mozart) and Wilbur Forester, tympani soloist, playing "Timpal" (Leist).

Student conductor of the orchestra is Daniel Richards, who will direct "Jazz Legato" (Anderson). Jerry Croft, student band conductor, will direct "March Onward" (Luthold).

The program also will include a brass sextet comprised of Donald Smith and Daniel Richards, cornets; David North, French horn; David Pennybaker, trombone; Glendon Huggins, baritone and James Bennett, tuba.

They will perform "Prelude and Allegro" (McKay), the number which won them a "superior" rating at the state solo and ensemble contest at Canton McKinley High School.

The Joe Thornberry Memorial award will be presented to a senior on the basis of scholarship, citizenship and musicianship. Mrs. Wayne Russell, president of the East Liverpool High School Band and Orchestra Mothers, will make the presentation.

123 Properties Due For Delinquent Sale

LISBON — Some 123 tax delinquent properties will be forfeited if no one applies before the hearings Friday, May 20, at 1 p.m., according to Howard Cole, assistant prosecutor.

The County Board of Revision listed the properties, claiming they would not bring a sufficient amount of money to pay the total amount charged against them on the tax duplicate, along with the costs of foreclosure.

The list of 123 parcels will be advertised before the hearing, Atty. Cole said.

Ohio's business climate is set for GROWTH!

Why do some states grow faster than others?

One big answer is: Business Climate. Does it encourage growth? Does it attract outside industry?

In Ohio, the answer is "yes" to both.

Take the case of the electric companies. In Ohio, this climate makes possible a good combination of reasonable electric prices to users — lower than in 31 states* — and reasonable returns to the investors. Under this favorable climate, Ohio's electric companies have been able to spur the growth of Ohio industry — and offer quality service that has helped bring new industry from outside.

We are proud of our part in sparking growth in Ohio—and grateful that we serve in a state where the business climate is set for G R O W T H !

Detroit Hits Skids After Red Hot Start

NEW YORK (AP)—Less than a week ago, the Detroit Tigers were rolling along in first place in the American League with a 5-0 record—the only team that hadn't been defeated.

Were the Tigers ever going to lose, the rest of the league was beginning to wonder? They didn't have to wait long. Since April 26, the Bengals have lost six games and have tumbled to a three-way tie for fifth place.

"It's the hitters," moaned Manager Jimmy Dykes today while waiting to send his club against the New York Yankees. "No one is hitting and I mean no one. I look at the averages and I can't find any of my guys. That's how far down they are."

The figures give mute testimony to Dykes' analysis. When the Tigers were 5-0, the team as a whole was batting .246. Not sensational but adequate to win behind solid pitching. Now the team BA has dropped to .202 and Dykes is getting desperate.

"I can't fault the pitchers," Dykes said. "They have been coming through fine. Tom Morgan in the bullpen has been great. But those hitters, ugh!"

Palmer And Collins Clash To Decide Houston Title

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Arnold Palmer, golf's greatest winner, sought his sixth tournament triumph in four months today as he met big Bill Collins in a play-off for first money in the $35,000 Houston Classic.

The two tied at 280 for 72 holes in a drama-packed finish Monday when Palmer, the Masters champion, closed with birdies on two of the last four holes for a 1-over-par 73 while Collins had a 75 and barely failed on a 15-foot putt on the final green that would have given him first money of $3,300.

Jack Fleck of Los Angeles missed the playoff when his putt for a birdie on the eighteenth hole was six inches wide. He had a close 72 for 281 and $2,200 third money.

Regardless of whether Palmer takes the playoff he still will have piled up the most money he ever won in a year. Back in 1958 Palmer drew down $45,607.93 by playing in 33 tournaments. This year he has participated in only 14 and will have won $47,657.57 even if he takes only second money of $3,400 here. With first money he will have $49,557.57.

Palmer could attribute a putting lapse on the third hole for his failure to win the tournament Monday. He overshot the green, chipped short and 3-putted for a double bogey. His second putt was only 18 inches.

Collins said the shot he figured kept him from winning the tournament outright came on the first hole of the final round. He had a muddy lie for his third shot, tried to pitch to the green and skinned the ball. It went over the green and he wound up with a bogey.

A crowd of 12,000 turned out for the final round, which was less than half the number on hand

Sunday when Texas' biggest golf throng in history—over 30,000—flooded the 7,122-yard Memorial Park course.

Frank Bely of Canton, Ohio, won $570 in prize money for his score of 72-69-77-71—289.

Orioles Provide Indians With Tie By Tripping Sox

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Whoops! Somebody better cut Frank Lane down from that telephone pole. Cleveland's Indians ain't dead after all.

Lane's trades, which had fans so wild they hanged the Cleveland general manager in effigy, now have the Indians in a first-place tie with the Chicago White Sox. The Tribe made it with a 3-2 victory at Washington, their fifth in a row, Monday night while the White Sox were losing 11-6 at Baltimore in the only American League game.

It was Johnny Temple, the second baseman Lane got from Cincinnati, whose two-out single scored the clincher against the Senators. And it was Herb Score and Don Ferrarese, two southpaws Lane swapped to the White Sox, who were tagged with seven runs as the third-place Orioles, (just .012 points behind) cut Chicago's streak at five games.

In the National League, a bases-loaded walk by Elroy Face gave the St. Louis Cardinals a ninth-inning run and a 4-3 victory over Pittsburgh, ending the Pirates' streak at nine games. Second-place San Francisco trimmed the Bucs' lead to one game with a 5-0 job on Milwaukee behind Mike McCormick's four-hitter. Cincinnati beat Los Angeles 6-5, with five unearned runs, and the Chicago Cubs defeated Philadelphia 8-7.

The Indians, who jumped from eighth to second in a Sunday doubleheader against Kansas City, scrambled to the top in a three-run seventh inning at Washington—then hustled from behind for an 8-5 lead by pairing four of their hits with three walks in a five-run fourth against Ferrarese (0-1). A two-run double by rookie Marv Breeding was the big hit.

Baltimore scored three in the first off Score on four walks and a two-run single by Gus Triandos—then hustled from behind for an 8-5 lead by pairing four of their hits with three walks in a five-run fourth against Ferrarese (0-1). A two-run double by rookie Marv Breeding was the big hit.

Millan struck out, Bailey sliced a double off the left field screen scoring Bell, Robinson and Walls.

Moon's two-run double tightened the Cincinnati edge to 6-5 in the eighth, but after Henry came on, the Dodgers could not threaten.

Calumet Farm Tries Its Old Derby Formula

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Calumet Farm this year is trying the same formula that provided five of its seven Kentucky Derby winners.

The Calumet trio of Hillsborough, Pied D'Or and Fango are among the 12 three-year-olds entered today in the one mile $15,000 added Derby trial.

Trainers Ben and Jimmy Jones traditionally have run the Calumet Derby hopefuls in the trial after passing the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland in favor of pre-race there.

In the eighth the Reds jumped into a 6-3 lead.

Vada Pinson singled and reached third when Neal committed his second error of the game, on Bell's grounder. But Pinson was out at the plate when Robinson grounded to Wills. Dodger pitcher Roger Craig was injured on the play at the plate in a collision with Pinson, and was forced from the game.

But when he walked the first two Dodgers in the eighth, Raul Sanchez came in—only to yield a two-run double to Wally Moon and walk a man.

Bill Henry relieved and nailed down the victory.

The Reds had taken a 2-1 lead in the fifth. Roy McMillan reached base on an error and singles by Bailey and Bell Martin loaded the bases. Eddie Kasko hit a double play ball to Maury Wills, who threw to Charley Neal for the out at second. But Neal's relay to first was wild, allowing McMillan and Bailey to score unearned runs.

But consecutive homers by Junior Gilliam and Neal with two out gave the Dodgers a 3-2 lead in the same inning.

In the Reds seventh, Billy Martin hit his first homer of the season and it was 3-3.

Bailey's Clutch Double Leads Reds To 6-5 Win

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds' pitching may have looked ragged recently but it often takes good hitters to make 'em look that way.

Like the Reds' own Ed Bailey. The big Tennessee catcher, trying to regain the hitting form that gave him a .300 average with lots of long-ball punch in 1956, wrecked the Los Angeles Dodgers Monday night.

Bailey's clutch double off World Series hero Larry Sherry brought in three runs and gave the Reds a 6-5 victory.

The 29-year-old catcher — like several teammates — credits Coach Wally Moses with improving his hitting.

"He just altered my stance a bit and got me to straighten up. Now I'm pulling the ball again," Bailey said.

Bailey's batterymate Monday night was Jim O'Toole. The left-hander had a good night, mostly. Through the first seven innings, he gave up three runs on five hits and walked four. He struck out eight.

But when he walked the first two Dodgers in the eighth, Raul Sanchez came in — only to yield a two-run double to Wally Moon and walk a man.

Bill Henry relieved and nailed down the victory.

Rules Guide Students Riding Buses

Year by year an increasing number of children are riding on school buses, and the safety record is amazingly good. But there's often a problem with discipline. It's easier for the bus driver to effect safety measures in the bus than in the classroom speech and behavior on the part of the children. Many mothers write By Garry Meyers me about children using profanity and obscene language on school buses. This is not always easily detected or corrected by the bus driver. On school buses carrying children of wide age-range, including some in junior or senior high school, one or two of the older students are often chosen as monitors. Sometimes they are selected by the Student Council because they have proved their sense of responsibility.

OBVIOUSLY THE best monitor is the one who, by persuasion and quiet reminders, creates in the bus a healthy moral atmosphere. If he thinks his job is to report all offenders to the bus driver, he only becomes an official tattler. Like some monitors in the elementary classroom.

Of course, if all the children in the bus are young and near of age, or if all are teen-agers, the monitor might be no older than the rest of the children, in which case his persuasive powers may not be very potent.

Perhaps there should be a bus committee consisting of the principal, one or two parents from the PTA, the bus driver and the

THE HOTTEST CAR VALUE
IN ALL AMERICA

The PONTIAC 1960

PONTIAC—"CAR OF THE YEAR" IN 1959 IS MAKING EVEN BIGGER HEADLINES IN 1960!

A champion repeats a spectacular performance! It was PONTIAC in '59; It's PONTIAC again in '60. Here's the car that has won the hearts of America . . . the car that gives you the new feeling of confidence behind the wheel, thanks to PONTIAC'S exclusive wide-track design . . . the car that has been literally "burning-up" speed tracks all across the country (and without a sacrifice of economy, too). The car that will hold its value in tomorrow's used car market even better than did its record breaking predecessor which astounded the entire industry. Don't put it off, come in and test drive a 1960 PONTIAC today and discover for yourself why PONTIAC is called the "Hottest car value in America".

Charming And Colorful

Camera Clicked And So Did Antony

By EDDIE GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — Antony Armstrong-Jones is a charming young man with golden hair and big blue eyes.

He is colorful, but not flamboyant.

He has been a bit of a Bohemian, but not in the grand eccentric manner.

He used to give midnight parties in his arty basement apartment, but they were never the wild abandoned revels that some people imagine.

He is a witty commentator on people, places and things, but lacking the mature wisdom or wit of a man of the world.

Tony is 30.

Four years ago he pointed a camera at the duke of Kent—and fate stared over his shoulder.

With that snap of a shutter he was on his way down the royal road of romance.

The then 21-year-old duke liked what Tony's camera did for his hardly classical features.

More important, perhaps, the duke's mother liked the picture, and the duchess of Kent is an arbiter of fashion behind Britain's royal family.

Tony was then only 26.

One of the persons to whom the duchess spoke was Queen Elizabeth II.

Impressed, the Queen commissioned Tony to photograph her children, Prince Charles and Princess Anne.

Here he took pictures, enter-

Tony scored a royal double and then parlayed this into a commission to take Princess Margaret's official birthday photograph.

Entering her last year before she would be 30, the spinster princess not only liked Armstrong-Jones' portrait, but liked bachelor Tony. They had met earlier at a party.

Tony's success in life began with a failure—when he flunked his examinations at Cambridge.

Tony became an apprentice to the late Baron Nahum, a photographer to the royal court.

He applied himself and set himself up in a former hardware shop in London's unfashionable Pimlico section.

Here he took pictures, entertained friends, did his own cooking and threw gay parties, some noisy but not naughty.

Tony—and that's the way he likes to be known—is 5-feet-4 and slight with a head like an Adonis.

As the husband of Princess Margaret he will probably never have to worry about money.

But some who know the princess say he may have other worries.

She is headstrong and outspoken. She can sulk, fume, flash her pale blue eyes, stomp her tiny feet and wither listeners with sarcasm.

But she can also be gracious, friendly and entertaining.

They appear to be deeply in

Lisbon Office Education Club Holds Banquet For Employers

The Co-operative Office Education Club of David Anderson High School entertained employers Saturday night with a 6:30 banquet at St. George Parish Hall.

Women of the church served. The tables were decorated with nosegays of pink Easter eggs nestled in pink crepe paper to resemble flowers, surrounding candleabras. Spring flowers also were used.

Miss Darlene Kelch gave introductory remarks and each girl introduced her employer. Floyd Lower spoke on "Evaluation of the COE to the Employer" and Miss Gayle Bretz represented the students of COE.

Miss Vera Ward presented a piano solo and Miss Kelch played a cornet solo, accompanied by Miss Ward.

R. D. Balthaser, state supervisor of education, gave a talk on "Meeting the Needs." He said only 35 per cent of high school graduates are privileged to go to college and that COE is helping to meet the need of training for girls entering business.

Miss Karen Lewton introduced the principal speaker, D. N. Borden, office manager of Timken Roller Bearing Co. of Canton, who discussed "Business Education and the Office of the Future."

Officers of the club are Misses Kelch, president; Bretz, vice president; and Ward, secretary and treasurer. Other charter members are Misses Norma Armstrong, Cecelia Dawes, Barbara Dorrance, Judy Drakulich, Nancy Evans, Linda Kenmure, Karen Lewton, Carolyn Marshalex, Frances Penny, Sande Pike, Patricia Spencer, Margaret Varner and Joyce Wells.

May Fellowship Day will be held at St. Jacob's United Church of Christ Friday by the Lisbon Council of Church Women, beginning with a noon coverdish.

Persons attending were asked to bring their own table service and a coverdish.

The program will follow at 1:30, with Mrs. Raymond Kulow of Hubbard as speaker. Her topic will be "Citizenship Free and Responsible".

A nursery will be provided for small children.

Weekend guests at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Keirns of Route 3 were Joseph Gaydos of Fontana, Calif., Mrs. William Tipple of Ashtabula, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barnes of Sammamish, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rutecki of Elkhorn-Signal Rd., Miss Eva Mae Staats of Route 3, and Norman Gaydos, Mrs. Florence Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pastore and children, Carla Sue and Clay Stephen, all of Lisbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dixon of E. Washington St. accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dixon of East Liverpool Rd. to Pittsburgh Sunday, where they visited Mrs. Ross Mulvey, daughter of the Earl Dixons.
